ANTÔNIO CARLOS CINTRA DO AMARAL escreve, com a concisão que lhe é peculiar, sobre suas memórias referentes ao tempo em que exerceu atividade política em Pernambuco, seu Estado natal, abrangendo inclusive o período de abril de 1964 a novembro de 1965, em que sofreu diretamente as conseqüências dessa atividade.

Exerceu os cargos de Chefe de Gabinete do Prefeito do Recife, Secretário Assistente do Governo do Estado de Pernambuco e Secretário de Educação e Cultura da Prefeitura do Recife, função que ocupava por ocasião do Golpe de 1964. Foi quase candidato a Prefeito do Recife e candidato derrotado a Vice-Prefeito. Preso duas vezes, decidiu rumar para o Sul do País, mais especificamente São Paulo, onde vive há mais de quarenta anos.

O autor sugere, no Prefácio, que o leitor não precisará de muito esforço para imaginar que sua experiência foi comum a uma geração de jovens idealistas, que viam a Política como uma vocação. "Uma geração que via o futuro com otimismo. Uma geração que teve sua trajetória política cassada. Uma geração proscrita."
